AMCHAR WHOLESALE NAMES TEXAS ARMAMENT & TECHNOLOGY/AGUILA AMMUNITION 2015 MANUFACTURER OF THE YEAR

CONROE, TEXAS – FEBRUARY 18, 2016 – Texas Armament & Technology (TxAT)/Aguila Ammunition is proud to announce they are the recipients of the 2015 AmChar Wholesale Manufacturer of the Year Award. AmChar presents this award annually to the manufacturer they feel is best to work with in terms of communication, marketing and sales support, reliability, consistency of delivery and customer service. The award was accepted by John Domolky, Director of Sales for TxAT/Aguila Ammunition, at the 2016 AmChar Wholesale Dealer Show earlier this week.

"This is a real honor, and what I believe will be the first award of many for TxAT/Aguila as we continue to do all the right things to grow market share and evolve our brand," states Domolky. "It's truly a combined effort through the teamwork that happens each day at TxAT and in our plant in Mexico, that has made Aguila Ammunition the brand it is today. Together we can win more of these awards as we continue to grow, improve, and build loyalty and respect from our customers and consumers."

According to Domolky, Amchar's CEO Tony DiChario stressed to the AmChar crowd that there were extensive deliberations when naming this award, but in the end TxAT/Aguila was the clear choice.

"Our entire team is proud of this achievement. It's a clear result of what can be done if we work as a team on both sides of the border and our customers are noticing the big difference (since 2011 when TxAT became the North American distributor of Aguila Ammunition products)," stated Luis Baiza, CEO for Aguila Ammunition in Mexico. "We will continue to work hard to build the Aguila brand."

As one of the largest commercial and law enforcement distributors in the country, AmChar is committed to providing the highest quality firearms, ammunition and supplies for shooting sports, hunting and law enforcement. Providing exceptional customer service after the sale to ensure complete customer satisfaction and providing the best products at a competitive price while not loosing sight of the people who made them who they are today, is their philosophy.
