

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Packin' Neat Adds an On-Body Solution for Women and Men

Cape Coral, FL – December 15, 2017

Packin' Neat, the innovative manufacturer of patented concealed carry options for women, announces the NEW Packin' Neat Tummy-Tuck holster. Packin' Neat has expanded its line of concealed carry solutions to include the new Tummy-Tuck Holster.

Designed with both women and men in mind, the Packin' Neat Tummy-Tuck Holster provides an easy to use, easy to wear on-body option. A light-weight, low-profile waistband holster made from breathable wicking fabrics. A design that wraps and keeps your firearm or other contents snug against the body. Positional to carry in the front or side with easy pull-tab access. Each Tummy-Tuck Holster comes complete with a removable, position-able trigger guard.

Kristen Franke, Packin' Neat's founder and inventor of the Packin' Neat purse insert had this to say about the new Tummy-Tuck Holster; "We are delighted to provide the newest Packin' Neat solution to women and men who carry a firearm on-body." This is something women have been asking for and we've created the answer."

Known for providing a high quality concealed carry holster solution, Packin' Neat has done it again with a simple yet effective designer holster solution to allow women and men to quickly and easily carry on body under jackets, shirts or other garments. Packin' Neat products are proudly manufactured in the U.S.A.
