RSR Group® adds Rosco Manufacturing® to their lineup.

January 3rd, 2018: Rosco Manufacturing; a proud American manufacturer of high quality gun barrels is proud to announce that RSR Group is now carrying the Bloodline & Purebred line of barrels throughout the United States.

RSR Group, from Winter Park, FL, is a nationwide distributor that traces its roots to a two-car garage in Rochester, NY. Since their humble beginnings in 1977 RSR Group has grown into one of the biggest and most dependable distributors around. Through it all RSR Group has stuck with their philosophy of Personal Service, Wide Selection, and Reliability.

“RSR Group is a trusted source that has taken care of its customers since day one, they have always gone the extra mile to ensure customer satisfaction. These core values make this partnership even more monumental for us, and resonate the same approach we have with our customers.” – Gabriel Cabrera (Marketing & Sales Director for Rosco Manufacturing).

Effective immediately RSR Group will be offering Rosco Manufacturing's entire product line nationwide.
