Talk Barrels over Beer with Weapon Depot

WINTER PARK, FL -- (January 5, 2017) To keep the buzz going about Weapon Depot, the online marketplace, auction website, and social platform for all things outdoors is giving away free beer at booth #860 during the 2018 SHOT Show.

Since launching a year ago, Weapon Depot has become a one-stop shop for all firearm, ammunition, hunting, camping, fishing, archery and tactical needs. “Our online community of outdoor enthusiasts continues to grow with new vendors, brands and buyers joining daily,” said Robert Sirianni, Jr. Founder and CEO of Weapon Depot. “We want to celebrate the success of our expanding community while we invite new buyers and sellers to join and see what all the buzz is about.”

Weapon Depot will be giving away free beer daily from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. to all visitors 21 and over who share Weapon Depot on their personal social media accounts by tagging @weapondepot.com on Facebook, Twitter or Instagram.

“Visitors without a social media account can still get a free beer by downloading our new Weapon Depot LIVE app to their smartphones,” assured Sirianni. “Weapon Depot LIVE is the first private seller app of its kind that unites buyers and sellers before and during events to streamline the buy, sell or trade process. We’ll be pointing out the many benefits of the app while pouring, so frequent event promoters and attendees should definitely stop by our booth, as should all buyers and sellers in the firearms and outdoor recreation industry.”

Weapon Depot will be at booth #860 for the duration of the 2018 SHOT Show. For additional information visit www.weapondepot.com.
