About Gun Accessory Supply:

For over 34 years, Gun Accessory Supply has served customers by providing them with the sporting goods products they need at prices that make sense.

As a true two-step distributor, we purchase merchandise from manufacturers and importers, passing the savings on to our customers with competitive prices. Gun Accessory Supply does not sell retail or consumer direct. In fact, we qualify each account as a true "dealer" or re-seller to protect our customer's margins.

During their first 18 years in business we operated in Hayward, California. In 2001 we moved to Oakdale, California into a brand new 30,000 square foot distribution facility designed by us, with our customers' needs in mind. In 2014 we opened an additional 35,000 square foot expansion.

Gun Accessory Supply has highly qualified staff to offer exceptional customer service and prompt response as well as knowledgeable outside sales representatives, all dedicated to our customer's success and satisfaction.
