REMINGTON CUTLERY TO EXHIBIT FIRST SET OF NEW PRODUCTS
AT 2018 SHOT SHOW

Post Falls, ID (January 16, 2017)—Remington Cutlery is excited to unveil the first group of products under the official license of Buck Knives, Inc. at SHOT Show 2018 in Las Vegas, NV.

With the first set of product reveals, Remington Cutlery will be launching six categories of knives ranging from hunting to everyday, including two signature limited edition Bullet knives.

Bullet Knives – Limited Edition

The first Bullet knife was introduced in 1922. Many variations of this legendary knife have been created since that time. The Bay Mustang Bullet knife and the Sterling Elk Bullet knife are the 2018 editions, with limited quantities. The Bay Mustang Bullet features a drop point, 420HC stainless steel blade with a red wood handle detailed with a custom nickel silver bullet shield. The Sterling Elk Bullet also has a 420HC steel blade and is accented with an elk handle and sterling silver bullet shield. Each Bullet knife in this series is proudly made in the USA. MSRP: $ 130-$225

Sportsman Series

Designed for the everyday hunter and outdoorsman, this series includes a 3-piece set consisting of a guthook, skinner, and caper with bright orange thermoplastic rubber handles and Black Oxide non-reflective blades. Individual fixed and folding knives are sold in this series. MSRP: $18-$48

Heritage Series

Consisting of three knives, the Heritage Series features a full tang fixed blade and two folding liner locks. Each knife is constructed of 420J2 stainless steel and a beautiful wood handle from the Guibourtia ehie tree native to Africa. MSRP: $29-45

F.A.S.T. Series

Prepared for quick use whenever needed, the Fast Action Soft Touch Series (F.A.S.T.) consists of a combination of fixed and folding knives available in a variety of rubberized handle options including black, Mossy Oak® Blaze®, Mossy Oak® Break-Up™ Pink and Mossy Oak® Break-Up® COUNTRY™. This series also includes assisted opening folders in medium and large sizes that feature Black Oxide coated 420J2 blades intended to reduce glare while adding corrosion resistance and an appealing appearance. MSRP: $25-$44

Tactical Series

With a focus on strength and durability, this series includes two folding drop points available in G10 or Titanium coated handles with carbon fiber inlays and one fixed blade with a titanium coated stainless steel handle with a carbon fiber inlay. MSRP: $36-$43

Everyday Carry

The everyday carry category includes two sleek stainless steel knives. Both knives feature a 420J2 drop point blade. The larger folder includes a clip for easy pocket carry. MSRP: $14-$20

All Remington products are backed by a Lifetime Warranty. Check out the newly released products at this year's 2018 SHOT Show, booth 14504. Products will be available at www.RemingtonCutlery.com in early 2018.
